DAN RENEAR TALKS STRAIGHT TO OARSMEN

Dan Renear and E. E. Mayne ("Older") left for the Coast by the Monarch this morning. Mayne to visit his father, and Renear to close up his business on the mainland preparatory to making his home in Honolulu. Both are enthusiastic sportsmen, and Mayne has long been one of the most successful of Healan members. His propensities towards practical joking have got Mayne into hot water on more than one occasion, but he generally managed to wriggle out safely, and he left today with a host of good wishes following him. Renear is also exceedingly popular with the sporting community, particularly among the rowing men, and just before he left Dan availed himself of the opportunity to hand out some straight dope to the Healan and Myrtle boys.

"It is most unfortunate that the two rowing clubs of Hawaii should be at variance," remarked Dan, "but I would like to say, though I have not come into the matter very closely, that the decision of the Healan is to enter a compact is a wise one. If a compact were entered into it would only be the beginning of the trouble. The Healan will have a new Alf Rogers boat which is thought to be the best ever, but the new Keenan boats may be just as fast, and anyway the clubs will break even. It is more a matter of better crews than better boats. The Myrtles have won in the past because they have had the better crews and they will win in the future if their crews are the better. It is seldom that an inferior crew wins, though, of course, it does happen. When I rowed in my last race here the Myrtles had the better crew, but during the race a seat in their boat broke and we won; that's all in the game, but I know the Myrtles had the better crew then."

"When Mayne and I are in 'Frisco, we will get round among the rowing clubs and we will try to frame up a match between the champion crew of San Francisco and the champion crew of Hawaii. What does it matter whether Honolulu is represented by all Myrtles or all Healan? So long as the crew to represent Honolulu is the best available, it doesn't make any difference who are in the boat. It might be that such a crew would be all Myrtle; there might be three Myrtles, or three Healan, but if it does happen that the Myrtle men are the better oarsmen, so much the better for them. The Healan have done well in taking the initiative on this point, but they will do a thousand times better if the race to take place between a Coast crew and the Healan is altered to read a Coast crew and Honolulu, the latter team being selected from all the oarsmen here."

Dan's comments are timely, and every person interested in sport will, it is hoped, heartily endorse them. Get together and boost for the benefit of all is rattlingly good advice.

INTER-COLLEGIATE TRACK MEET TODAY

Two track meets this afternoon, on the Alexander Field, the first dual inter-collegiate meet of the year will commence between Oahu College and the College of Hawaii. The events set down for competition are twelve in number, viz: one hundred yards, two hundred and twenty yards, quarter-mile, half-mile and one-mile races; two hundred and twenty yards hurdles, high jump, broad jump, putting the shot, throwing the hammer, pole vault, and relay race.

Numerically the Oahu College team is much the stronger, for while the College of Hawaii has only eleven athletes to depend upon in this meet the Oahu College has twenty-eight.

W. Rice, McCandless and Marcellino are the star members of the College of Hawaii team, for Rice is down to compete in nine events, McCandless in like number, Marcellino in eight. Then Barnhart and Marolich are in for four events, Kuhns for three, Melnecke and Fook On for two, and Hop, Yat and Pratt for one each.

For the Oahu College, Ran Hitchcock is to compete in seven events, E. Gay in five, W. Hitchcock and E. Baldwin in four, W. Morgan and W. Paty in three, Ed Liu, L. Gay, Lucas and Poepe in two each, and the following in one event: P. Young, H. Brown, W. Alexander, Timberlake, B. Coney, G. Murray, Onderkirk, Gibb, A. Anderson, Nottage, Damon, L. Williams, Jong Goo, Inman, Moir, D. and H. Baldwin.

Everything is in readiness for the meet, which is expected to be a very successful one. An admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged at the gate.

SPORT NOTES

The Waseda University baseball team, which is due to leave Yokohama by the Siberia on April 4th, will pass through Honolulu on the 14th, but it is hardly possible that a game will be played here, as the team is due to arrive in San Francisco on the 20th and will play Stanford University very shortly after arrival. The team is under management of the Chicago University, and in addition to playing the Stanford University will meet most of the others, including the Nevada University. The team may be prevailed on to play a game or two in Honolulu on its way back to Japan, if the dates do not clash with those which are to be arranged with Kefo University here.

The Stewart Cup competition over the golf links will be played tomorrow, commencing at ten in the morning and continuing all day.

H. Brandt, of Kamehameha school, shapes well as a high jumper, says Soldier King. All that Brandt needs to bring him into the first flight is to develop his take off and gauge his preliminary run better. King likes the lad's style, and expects him to improve on the 5 ft. 3 in. he covered yesterday.

The meeting between the runners scheduled for last night did not take place as expected, but it will be held on Monday evening. King and Simon-ton (Kao's manager) met this morning and, on behalf of Kao, Simon-ton agreed to run a twenty-mile race against King. On Monday the final arrangements will be made, and it is probable that the match will be run on the 19th inst. The King-Fitzgerald match will be run on April 9th, if present arrangements hold good.

Particulars of the fight between Sam Langford and Bill Lang in London on the 21st ult., show that after six fierce rounds, when Langford was down, the Australian, in a dazed sort of way, rushed at the American and struck him and immediately the referee proclaimed Langford the winner. The Australian, with all his natural advantages, including an extra 52 pounds in weight, was hopelessly outclassed by the negro, who walked into him and hit him from all angles, where and when he willed.

Lang was all nerves. He seemed scared to death, and his disqualification was the best thing that could have happened, for he was so groggy that he was bound to have been put out if he had not transgressed.

The only redeeming feature of Lang's showing was his gameness in taking punishment. As early as the first round Langford punched him all over the ring. In the second and third rounds Lang went down for nine but came back in the fourth and exchanged left and right swings with Lang, both at a terrific rate. At that point both of Lang's eyes were almost closed and Langford was laughing.

The Australian took a long count twice again in the fifth, but in spite of the heavy punishment he carried the fight to the end of the next time up, and in a fast jabbing style put the latter down, but this was done more by accident than anything else. Lang was greatly excited and hairy by this time and he rushed his opponent, striking him heavily before Langford could regain his feet.

"One Round" Hogan of California gained the popular decision over "Knockout" Brown of New York in a ten-round bout at the Madison athletic club, New York, on February 22.

Brown failed to make the showing he recently made against Ad Wolgast in Philadelphia; backed by the reputation he earned in that fight, Brown was easily the favorite. But the first round served to raise Hogan several points in the estimation of the crowd. It was a hard fight, but Hogan got to Brown as no other fighter has been able to do.

The Californian outpointed, outboxed and outfought the hardy New York lightweight, and the big house generally voted the laurels to Hogan when the last gong had sounded.

Frankie Burns of Jersey City, the national bantamweight champion, and Alf Lynch, bantamweight champion of Canada, went fifteen rounds to a draw at New Haven on the 21st ult. Lynch was several times in distress, but rallied and finished strong.

Packey McFarland of Chicago and Frankie Madole of Pittsburg fought six rounds at Philadelphia on the 22nd ult., and, although no decision was rendered, McFarland had the better of it. They fought at catchweights.

It is announced that Packey McFarland of Chicago and Billy Ryan of Syracuse will meet in a ten-round bout at Oswego March 20. Both are to make 135 pounds at 3 o'clock.

Frank Gotch threw Peter Nogent, the Boer, twice within an hour at Hartford, Conn., on the 22nd ult. He secured the first fall in 20 minutes and the second in 6 minutes.

Packey McFarland, the Chicago

lightweight, and Owen Moran, the Briton, agreed to watch in at 135 pounds at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of March 11. They will fight at the Fairmont athletic club.

AMONG THE WRESTLERS.
George Hackenschmidt defeated Charles ("Kid") Carter of Chicago in two straight falls at the auditorium, Denver, on February 22. The first fall came after 11 minutes 20 seconds of wrestling with a half-nelson and a crowd hold. The second Hackenschmidt took easily in 5 minutes 20 seconds with a half-nelson and bar lock.

The following night at Pueblo, Colo., Hackenschmidt defeated George Eberle in straight falls. The first came in 17 minutes and 20 seconds and the second in 5 minutes and 7 seconds.

He followed up the victory by winning at Colorado Springs on the 31st from Earl London of Chicago in two straight falls. The first was gained in 17 minutes and the second in 5 minutes.
